Our brand

Our brand is extremely important and one of the most valuable elements is the coat of arms (shield) of the University of Cambridge.

The shield (in the logo below) was granted for use by the Scholars of the University of Cambridge by the English Crown during the reign of Queen Elizabeth 1 in 1573. This symbol now represents educational excellence around the world, nearly 500 years later.

As a Cambridge Professional Development Centre, you have our permission to use this symbol of excellence as part of our logo. We ask that you treat it with respect and use it solely in compliance with these guidelines and the regulations set out in the Cambridge Handbook.

Professional Development Centre

Your responsibilities

As a Cambridge Professional Development Centre you have a responsibility to comply with the guidelines for use of the Professional Development Centre logo.

These obligations are set out in the Centre and Cambridge Associate Responsibilities chapter of the Cambridge Handbook in section Q.

If you do not keep to them, we will be entitled to take appropriate action, which may include:

- requiring you to take remedial action
- requiring you to undergo further inspection and quality assurance visits
- removing your centre's eligibility to enter for some or all of our qualifications
- removing your centre status and terminating any contract we have with you.

The Professional Development Centre logo can only be used in ways set out in these guidelines. We do not permit any other use.

Approval

You must get approval from us before printing or publishing any new marketing item using the Professional Development Centre logo by sending us a digital copy – see page 11 for more details.

Logo usage

You must never use the shield from the logo on its own, it must always be used as part of the Professional Development Centre logo.

Text option

Email signatures and/or business cards

If the logo is too small to be legible, you can use the following line of text after your organisation's name and/or logo:

[Your organisation name] is a Cambridge Professional Development Centre

Example signature:

[Your name], [Job title]

[Your organisation name], 123 High St, City, Country

[Your organisation name] is a Cambridge Professional Development Centre

Logo placement guidelines

- The Professional Development Centre logo must be secondary in size and position to your own identity (see pages 6 and 7 for examples).
- There must not be any confusion regarding your identity as an organisation independent of us.
- When used alongside other organisation logos (e.g. other exam boards) please ensure they are all proportionately the same size and that the size and clearance zones indicated (see right) are maintained.

Example letterhead logo placement

Your centre name and/or logo must be at the top.

Our logo must be smaller and secondary in size and position, placed at the bottom of printed materials or on websites.

Logo clearance area

We require a shield width clearance around the logo (see below). We also require that the logo is placed on a plain background as this allows for maximum legibility.

Clearance area required around the logo shown as 'x'

Frequently asked questions

To help you we have provided answers to the questions we are often asked in relation to the use of the Professional Development Centre logo.

May I use the shield on its own?

No. We do not allow the shield to be used on its own because it is the symbol of the University of Cambridge. We do not want your organisation to be confused with either Cambridge or the University itself.

Can I incorporate the shield into my name or centre logo?

No. We do not allow incorporation of the shield into names or other organisations logos because it implies a belonging to the University of Cambridge. You are registered with us and are therefore permitted to use only the customer version of the logo we have prepared for you. Please use your own independent identity to promote yourselves.

Can I incorporate 'Cambridge' into my name?

No. Again, we believe this will cause confusion as incorporating the name 'Cambridge' may imply a legal association that cannot be substantiated. Your organisation name must be completely independent of ours.

I am in a group/association of centres and not all the centres in the group/association are registered with Cambridge. Can the other centres and/or the head office of the group/association use the logo too?

No. Only the centres registered with us in the group/association can use the Professional Development Centre logo on their marketing materials and website. The logo cannot be used on the website or marketing materials of the head office of an association or group of centres unless it is very clear that it is only in relation to the centre, or centres, in the group/association registered with Cambridge.

The way I want to use the Professional Development Centre logo is not covered in these guidelines – may I use it the way I want?

No. These guidelines show how the Professional Development Centre logo may be used. Any situation that is not covered in these guidelines is not permitted.

May I use the Professional Development Centre logo on my letterhead?

You can only use the Professional Development Centre logo on your letterhead, but it must be secondary in size and position to your own logo. This is to avoid confusion regarding your status as an independent organisation. See page 6 for an example.

May I use the Professional Development Centre logo on my business cards and in email signatures?

Yes, but if the logo is too small you can use the line of text below instead of the Professional Development Centre logo:

[Your organisation name] is a Professional Development Centre.
